Ideas for Participation:

Fingerplays and action rhymes help your child learn new words through rhythm and repetition. In addition, fingerplays will improve your child's motor skills and coordination. Practice the fingerplays and action rhymes between stories to keep your child's attention and to enhance the storytime experience.

ROCK-A-BYE BABY

Rock-a-bye baby,
On the tree top, (rock baby in your arms)
When the wind blows,
The cradle will rock, (sway your arms from side to side)
When the bough breaks,
The cradle will fall (drop your hands)
And down will come baby, cradle and all.

THIS IS A BABY READY FOR A NAP

This is a baby ready for a nap.
(Hold up one finger.)

Lay her down in her mother's lap.
(Place in finger in palm of the other hand.)

Cover her up so she won't peep.
(Wrap fingers around it.)

Rock her till she's fast asleep.
(Rock finger back and forth.)

AT NIGHT IT IS DARK

Tune: The Framer in the Dell

At night, it is dark.
At night, it is dark.
The sun has gone, the moon has come.
At night, it is dark.

I can see the stars.
I can see the stars.
They twinkle softly in the sky.
I can see the stars.

I'm getting very sleepy.
I'm getting very sleepy.
I don't need to be awake.
I'm getting very sleepy.

Goodnight, moon and stars.
Goodnight, moon and stars.
I'll see you tomorrow night.
Goodnight, moon and stars.
