Ideas for Participation:

Fingerplays and action rhymes help your child learn new words through rhythm and repetition. In addition, fingerplays will improve your child's motor skills and coordination. Practice the fingerplays and action rhymes between stories to keep your child's attention and to enhance the storytime experience.

The Muffin Man

Oh, do you know the muffin man,
the muffin man, the muffin man.
Oh, do you know the muffin man,
that lives on Drury Lane?
Oh, yes, I know the muffin man,
The muffin man, the muffin man.
Oh, yes I know that muffin man,
that lives on Drury Lane.

The Gingerbread Man Song (Sung to: "Jimmy Crack Corn")

A baker took some gingerbread dough
And shaped a man from head to toe.
When it was baked, the cookie fled.
Here is what the cookie said:
Run! Run! As fast as you can!
You can't catch me, I'm the gingerbread man!
Run! Run! As fast as you can!
You can't catch me, I'm the gingerbread man!

Five Red Apples

Five red apples
Hanging on a tree.
(five fingers held up)

The juiciest apples you ever did see!
The wind came past
and gave an angry frown.
(shake head and look angry)

And one little apple cam tumbling down. (Put one finger down)

Continue with four red apples,
three red apples,
two red apples, etc.
